

Arthur J.E. Child Chair in Rheumatology Research

Terms of Reference

Trainee Supplemental Learning & Resources Stipend

Details

- Funding is available to support trainees
 - seeking to gain skills in rheumatology clinical and health outcomes research through learning opportunities which are more specific or relevant to their learning or research
 - requiring data management or data analysis software to support their research
- Training may be virtual or in-person

Funding

- A minimum of ten (10) awards are available annually
- The maximum amount awarded per trainee per year is $1,000

Eligibility

- Trainee (post-doctoral fellow, graduate student, or undergraduate student) of a McCaig Institute for Bone and Joint Health Full or Associate member, engaged in clinical and health outcomes rheumatology research
- Letter of support from the primary supervisor attesting to the approval and benefit of the experiential learning opportunity, or resource
- Confirmation from the primary supervisor of the required resource
- Registration confirmation or approval of course instructor

Use of funds

- Enrollment or registration fees
- Purchase of books, supplies or accompanying study materials required or recommended
- Purchase of software subscriptions that are not readily available with UC institutional license

Dates

- Applications will be accepted on an ongoing basis
- Courses may be taken as available within the fiscal year period of the Arthur J.E. Child Chair in Rheumatology Research

Accountability

- Stipends will be provisionally approved once eligibility criteria are met, but reimbursement for expenses is conditional on completion of the course
- Acknowledgement of funding received from the Arthur J.E. Child Chair in Rheumatology Research in associated presentations, publications, or knowledge mobilization activities
- Within 2 weeks of completion, the trainee shall provide:
 - Confirmation of completion
 - Detailed receipts
 - A brief summary of learnings or benefits of the learning opportunity

Application Requirements

- Complete application form online